L'Histoire
du Prince Charmant
for Solo Flute

The Story of Prince Charming is really a story you're telling here.
It begins with the ballad of Prince Charming in the forest.
Then his meeting with the bird. His discovery of the glass coffin.
His sudden love. His fear of seeing his beloved die.
His lamentations, and then... The hesitation!
Does he give himself the right to kiss her without her consent?

From there, I leave you free to "play" your version, your answer.
The Prince chose to kiss her? Then they lived happily ever after.
He preferred to respect the integrity of the girl and therefore decided to let her sleep a little longer.
Then he leaves with his bird friend, convinced that he made the right choice.

The performer tells us the end of the story.
